Mr. Lawrence R. Houston
General Counsel
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Houston:

Thank you for the copy of your letter dated March 16, 1970, to Mr. S. Everett Gleason at the Department of State. I have enclosed a copy of a paper that accompanied the original galley proofs which, I am not sure, had been included in the package I handed to General Cushman. This would appear to go a little bit further than the State Department regulations quoted in your letter and appears to permit the Department of State to downgrade to Confidential reproductions of Top Secret and Secret documents without review by the originating agencies, prior to the review for possible publication.

Sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Charles H. Reichardt", is positioned above the typed name.

Charles H. Reichardt
Director of Intelligence
